ESKEW BROS, Machinists, REPRESENT INDUSTRIAL PROGRESS.

Are You Advancing?

PROGRESS means to make improvement--to advance. For a farmer it means the use of any machine that will increase crops with the least work. When you progress you are striving for easier methods of doing things, better ways of living, and the attainment of all improvements which will help you to live comfortably so that you can enjoy your work, and at the same time relish the free, fresh air and sunshine. Are you doing it? Do you progress?

"A little bit
the best Mower
that ever went into the field"

THE NEW WALTER A. WOOD MOWER THE ADMIRAL

The Admiral is the latest Walter A. Wood Mower. In it is concentrated their fifty-seven year experience. It possesses all the peculiar features of construction that have made Walter A. Wood Mowers world-famous. Its new features make it even more valuable to the farmer. The following statement of a prominent Illinois dealer indicates the popularity of the Admiral and suggests the wisdom of investigation.

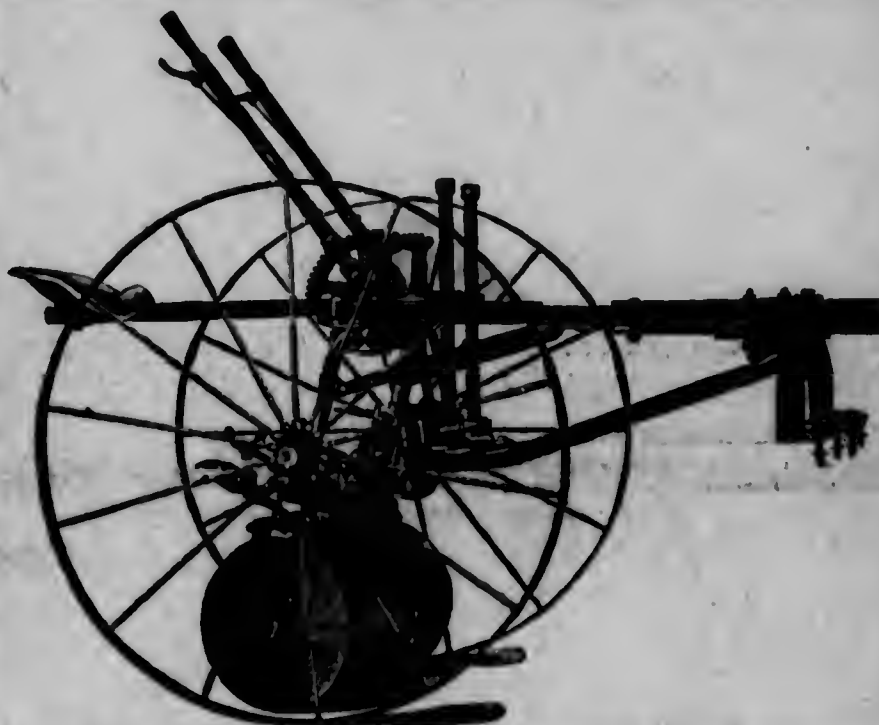

"The Admiral is just a little bit the best Mower that ever went into the field. Farmers come in every day telling what a wonderful machine it is. We would not buy anything else."
We want to show this up-to-date Mower to every farmer in this locality. No one who wants to keep posted on the newest in farm machinery will neglect to investigate the Admiral. It will surprise and delight you.

Do You Believe In Progress?

MEN who progress are men who use McCormick or Walter A. Wood's up-to-date binders, hay-rakes, mowers hay-tedders, reapers, harrows, cultivators, planters and etc. Are you up to date? Are you using modern farm machines? Look at your equipment. Are't some of your machines pretty well worn? Shouldn't you replace them? There is no line of farm machines superior to our line. These machines are used in every civilized country in the world.

McCormick and Walter A. Wood machines are recommended by men who use them, they could have no better recommendation than this. It is to your interest to use this line as they are best and give the least trouble in repairs, as we carry a full line at our shop. Get our prices and see our machines before you buy. We take pleasure in showing them.

SPLENDID PROGRESS

MADE IN ROAD BUILDING.

Full List Of All Subscriptions

All advances in civilization are brought about by either moral or physical reforms. The building of good roads is a physical reform. It is said that "Cleanliness is next to Godliness" and a companion couplet reads "Good roads begets good morals". These couplets are not found in the Bible but they certainly breathe the spirit of sacred inspiration.

The building and maintenance of good roads in any community, County or State is conclusive evidence of a well balanced public mind, a reasonable desire for comfort, and a keen appreciation of their value in dollars and cents. The earliest systematic effort at road making is accredited to the Carthaginians and was begun for the purposes of war and the conquest of distant countries. 55 years before Christ, Julius Caesar built a road from London to New Castle-on-Tyne and this road is one of the best in all England and is used to-day. The Romans were the greatest road makers the world ever saw and they conquered the world. English roads are the best on the continent and one of their most celebrated road makers was Macadam, a Scotchman, whose success at road building founded on through drainage.

The most celebrated road in all history is the Appian way leading from Rome Italy to the coast. It was begun by Appius Claudius Ceresus 312 years before Christ was born, and was built of hexagonal, or six sided blocks, principally of lava, and carefully laid with cement. This is a model highway to this day.

The Apostle Paul journeyed to Rome over this road some 350 years later and as soon as he struck this remarkable piece of engineering he "Thanked God and took courage". We understand of course, from the text that the sight of the brethren caused the exclamation, and yet Paul had traveled a tempestuous route, buffeted by the wind and waves, assaulted by robbers, in peril on land and sea, and is it too much to presume that when this old soldier of the cross planted his feet on the solid rock of Appius and felt a foundation under his feet like unto the foundation of the religion he preached, that part of his thanks to God was for good roads.

Millions of men since Paul's time have thanked God for good roads and thousands in Crittenden County will in the future do likewise, and whether or not this future is far distant or close at hand depends on the people of the county.

Good roads are not an iridescent dream merely to be talked about and cast aside when the novelty of the thing wears away. Good roads are a reality. We are just as certain to have good roads all over this county as the judgment day is certain to come; but who wants to wait until the judgment for the realization of good roads? What good will it do our generation to know there will be 500 miles or more of good roads in Crittenden County 100 years from now. Good roads today interest this generation.

There is not a doubt in the world but what we can have good roads if we will "Aye theres the rub" if we will. If our people will to have good roads we will have them. Good roads are an investment not an expense. If a farmer puts a $500.00 tobacco barn on his farm, is it lost? No, it is an investment and he promptly adds that much to the value of his farm. $100,000.00 spent on good roads in Crittenden County will add $200,000.00 to the value of the farms of this county.

The Crittenden Record-Press is deeply interested in this subject and will do everything in its power to help this work along, and particularly urges each and every one to put his shoulder to the wheel and let us have one piece of good road as a starter in this county. Let it be as good as can be constructed and the we will have a pattern for the inspection of all the people. Precept and preaching are good but example is the best of all teaching.

The Record-Press is happy to announce that we have $2,070.00 in cash subscribed to date and 367 days work for team and one man. This latter is worth $1,101. which added to the cash makes $3,171.00.

We must have $1,200.00 more. We have to have this to guarantee the fiscal court in its share of the work which is the grading and building. This must and will be raised by May 15th on which day we will have a good roads meeting and elect some non-salaried officers. Everyone is invited to attend this meeting. All subscriptions to date follow:

Oranges Filled With Silver To Be Given Away Absolutely Free.

Beginning Saturday Apr. 29th
Ending Monday May 15

During this time we will give an orange with every one dollar purchase for cash.

Some of these oranges will be just as they came from the tree.

Some will contain a Five Cent Piece.

Some will contain a Silver Dime.

Some will contain a Silver Quarter.

Some will contain a Silver Half Dollar.

Some will contain a Silver Dollar.

To illustrate, if you buy one dollars worth of domestic, or anything else you draw one orange. If you buy a twenty dollar drugget, you draw twenty oranges.

We have the greatest line of Spring offerings and at the most marvelously low prices that it has ever been our pleasure to show. We are selling our merchandise on its merits alone. We never in our lives felt more sanguine that we were giving more dependable merchandise than we are right now.

We do not ask or expect anyone to buy a penny of us in the expectation that they will draw money, because they may not. There are many oranges without money.

What we do claim is this; That if you need merchandise or will need it soon, that no house ever did, ever will, or ever can give you more merchandise for your money than we are giving and in addition to the merchandise which you buy, we will, during this sale give you one orange with each dollar's purchase, and that orange will in most cases contain money.

THE TURN IN THE LANE.

(By M. H. Lockyear.)

When winter is past and springtime has come,
When song birds are happy and bees start to hum,
When the bloom on the clover bears its sweetest perfume,
And the roses get red in the middle of June,
Oh! it's then I go back to the turn in the lane,
And live over the joys of my childhood again.

I can see the old house, as it stood on the hill,
The creek through the meadow, the old water mill;
The long country road with its dust or its mud,
The old crooked path as it wound through the wood;
The barefooted boys as they played hide and seek,
In the willows which fringed both sides of the creek.

I go out to the field where the green waving grain
Is fanned by the breezes and fed by the rain,
And its waves rise and fall as if bowing to me,
As they frolic and toss like the billowy sea.
I visit the orchard with its blossoms so fair,
The perfume of which fills the soft summer air.

But time has changed the old country place,
Like the change that has come to my once youthful face.
The hillside is furrowed and wearing away,
And the walls of the house have begun to decay.
I pause to reflect as this story is told,
That visions of youth are still ours when we're old.

The friends we loved then are the friends we love now,
Though grey be their hair and wrinkled their brow;
The teachers we had are instructing us still
For lessons they taught are controlling our will.

The years that are past their wonders have wrought,
While the lessons of youth are never forgot.
So to-day I go back to the turn in the lane,
And live over the joys of my childhood again.
I can see the old house as it stood on the hill,
The creek through the meadow, the old water mill,
The long country road with its dust or its mud,
The old crooked path as it wound through the wood;
The barefooted boys as they played hide and seek,
In the willows which fringed both sides of the creek.

OPENS CAMPAIGN

Congressman Ollie M. James
Delivers Opening Address
at Nicholasville

LARGE CROWD HEARS ORATOR

Address Was in Interest of His Candidacy For the United States Senatorship in Race Against Senator Paynter.

Nicholasville, Ky.—Congressman Ollie M. James, candidate for the Democratic nomination for United States Senate against Senator T. H. Paynter, opened his campaign in this city Monday. The largest crowd in the history of Jessamine county was in town to hear the big orator of Western Kentucky. After an introduction by Senator B. M. Arnett, Mr. James spoke as follows:

Senator Paynter states that he did not undertake to take any action relative to influencing members of the State Executive Committee about calling a primary or taking any action relative to selecting nominees for the United States Senate. He says he thought any action they should take would be with a view of conserving the best interests of the party. As to whether he undertook any action or not, it is a fact well known to the people of Kentucky that every close personal friend of his, together with the Democrats from the district in which he lives or did live, voted against including the race in the primary, and after a primary had been ordered for all State officers the United States Senatorship was excluded from the primary in direct violation of Democratic doctrine and platform promises for almost a quarter of a century.

The Senator still sat silent as he says, I presume still believing, "that any action taken would be with a view to conserving the best interests of his party." And, yet, he must have known, and I charge that he did know, that such action as this was reactionary and undemocratic and was scabbing Democratic hopes to the very heart. And, yet, he remained silent, still believing, as he tells us, that the action the committee should take would be to best "conserve the interests of the party." Senator Paynter has never favored a primary election, and today is dragged unwillingly before the proud electorate of the Commonwealth to submit his claims for their confidence and approval and his candidacy to their endorsement. Senator Paynter was not the choice of the people of Kentucky when he was elected to the Senate; he is not the choice of the people of Kentucky now. I believe I am well within the bounds of reason and truth when I say that Senator Paynter could not have polled, when he was elected to the Senate, more than one vote out of five in Kentucky against Senator Blackburn.

But the Senator dodges the proposition when he states it is unnecessary to state what his preference was as to the nomination of the candidates for state officers and the United States Senate. Senator, I am no mind reader, but I know your preference as the people of Kentucky know what it is. There was a time when it was necessary for you to act. When Democratic platforms were being trumpeted up and Democratic issues were perpetuated you remained silent.

I was told quite frequently at Louisville, when the committee met the time before the last, that the primary call was not in proper form and that it must be absolutely legally drawn because Senator Paynter intended to institute a suit in the courts enjoining the holding of the senatorial primary; that it would not be done by him openly, but by some other person who really would be acting in his interest and that it would be held, of course, that Senator Paynter knew nothing about it; that a primary was entirely satisfactory to him.

My Record.
Senator Paynter says in his card of announcement that I am a member of a great committee of the House and the people of the state can not afford to ignore my services from the House, and that I will still remain a member of the House during his term as senator. The Senator doubtless loses sight of the fact that the term of congress for which I am elected expires at the same time that the senatorial office which he now holds expires and of course the statement that I would remain a member of Congress is untrue and made by the Senator either for the purpose of deceiving the people of Kentucky or without the knowledge of the fact that a member of Congress is only elected for two years. It is indeed, fellow citizens, gratifying in the extreme to know that after a service of eight years in the House in trying times, when greed and oppression were battering at the very entrance, when lobbyists, great and corrupt, were crowding every hall, when measures affecting the public interests were many and complex, that my opponent can not find one flaw in my record, and was forced to urge as a reason why I should not be sent to the Senate that I had proved too faithful in the House. No greater tribute could he pay me, no greater compliment could he bestow than the admission that the record of the critic and the enemy could find no fault and he was forced to this admission. And yet this argument simply means that to prove worthy of a trust is to be denied greater trust; to prove capable is not to be promoted, and to prove faithful is not to find reward.

People of Kentucky can well say, "We want the services of such a man who has risen so high and holds such a prominent position in the ranks of his party to act for the whole state; for the good of the rest of the state why circumscribe the services of such a man to the narrow limits of a single district, why not let such good services come to all Kentucky alike?" The argument the Senator makes that because a member of congress has been capable and worthy and prominent in the house, he should be kept there, would have kept Henry Clay out of the Senate, would have kept James H. Beck in the house, would have kept John J. Crittenden representing a district, would have kept John G. Carlisle acting for the Sixth Kentucky district, would have kept John C. Breckinridge in the house, and Joseph C. S. Blackburn representing the Ashland district. While the Senator advances this argument to the people of the whole state, it is the only one in my judgment, by which the Senator could have ever been elected to the Senate, and I presume for that reason it is dear and dear to him. While my own district might demand that I should remain in the house, yet it delights me beyond expression to know that I am supported by the Democrats of that great district as no other candidate presented by it has been with in my knowledge. They are unselfish enough, they are generous enough to support me in this ambition to represent the whole Commonwealth, including themselves, in the United States Senate.

THE CLODHOOPER AND THE BALD-HEADED MAN

A STIRRING TALE OF LOVE AND BUSINESS.

Written for the Record-Press by ROBERT C. HAYNES, Author of "This Funny World," "Dark Days and Bright," Etc.

IX.

Joe Gets Some Advice.

A week rolled away, and Miss Inogene Moss—She was free, of course, from her bald-headed boss—Had been busy assisting in household affairs, Making pies, sweeping floors and the dusting of chairs.

Joseph, too, had been busy—still lifting up hods—He had almost forgotten he'd ever hopp'd clods—So still up went the bricks to the man at the top, With never a shirk and with scarcely a stop.

One ev'ning, however, when Joe had quit work—For the man at the top had cried, "Time is up Turk!" And had started for home, as was always his plan, He was met on the way by the bald headed man.

"Let me speak to you, Turk, just a moment," he said; I have heard that you've made up your mind soon to wed, Now, of course I can't blame you, 'tis better, I own, As the Bible has said, than to live all alone.

"You've a good paying job, that of lifting up hods—I'm agreeing with you, it beats hopping the clods—And I'd like well to see you thus settled in life In a nice, happy home with a sweet loving wife.

DEAREST.

I ask thee not for costly gifts,
For vows all break when love's adrift,
Nor vows of love sincerest,
But when you call me "Dearest"
I rest content, nor wish for more;
It brings me joy unfeigned—
For Love's at anchor close to shore
And has no thought of sailing.

Of all sweet words of pen or tongue
That speak of love the clearest,
To rich and poor, to old and young,
Is that sweet title, "Dearest!"
Of all the terms at Love's command
The truest and sincerest,
Most winning name by nature
planned

Is just old-fashioned "Dearest!"
It reassures the heart of mine
And sets the joy bells ringing,
Goes to my head like rare old wine—
New joys and hopes upspringing,
Let others call me as they will,
The kindest or severest,
I heed them not, though good or ill
While you still call me "Dearest!"

We are authorized to announce Thomas S. Rhea, of Logan county
as a candidate for treasurer,
of the state of Kentucky, subject to the action of the democratic primary, to be held July 1 1911.

Three weeks of Congress have emphasized the unusual spectacle of a Republican president reaching across the party chasm for the help his own followers denied him.

Reciprocity was ever a favorite chant with the republicans high priests, since the days of James G. Blaine. It gave a ring of "sweetness and light" to the party platforms. The men who pulled the wires were glad enough to swap platform planks freely, as long as the high-brows kept their off the choice of delegates.

Reciprocity was a friendless waif in the crowd that used to control Congress. They had a special pigeon hole made with a false bottom for its interment.
And now come the wicked Democrats, who never made any particular virtue of reciprocity. But singularly enough, they alone
can be depended on to pass it.
Its like the man in the Bible who said he would go and did not, and the man who said he wouldn't go but he did.

Protecting home industries really rests on just the same basis as maintaining the industries of one's own town. Most of us believe in buying at home, even if it costs us a little more. Some of us would pay a good size tax if we could thereby get more industries here.

But few of us would pay any such tax, unless we had every opportunity to scrutinize the inside figures of the deal, and to see whether we had to pay twice as much as necessary, and if the returns were enough to compensate for the burdens we had to bear.

Futhermore, if any such tax were laid on us indefinitely for the support of such an industry, we would be questioning whether it was an economical investment.

In the national field, the man who receive these subsidies have been permitted to name their own figures to friendly receptive committees. When the Consumer, the long suffering fellow who had to pay, rose to have an it-imized bill read aloud in public meetings, he was promptly hushed down as out of order.

Some of the merchants who hold to the older business methods do not quite realize how modern trade has abandoned its former passive attitude.

Our older men will recall a time when buyers of manufactured goods used to visit the factories to make their purchases.
Manufacturing then was pretty well concentrated in the Eastern states, and long and difficult journeys were taken to see the goods personally.

A manufacturer of those days
would have laughed at the idea that he spent his good money
in sending out salesmen on costly junketing to jolly up the retailers. He was sure of a certain trade by sitting in his tracks and waiting for the business to come to his door.

Today the buyers sit down in their stores and wait for the manufacturers to send salesman
to see them, and manufacturers that fail to do this lose their trade.
But a remnant of retailers still think they can do business on the old time principle of letting trade come to you. The public however, assumes that the man who thus fails to play the game of merchandising lacks confidence in his goods, since he is not willing to pay the ordinary expenses of selling them.

The newspaper advertisement
serves with marvelous efficiency
as the retailer's traveling salesman. It tells his story to thousands of readers in the time a salesman would spend talking to one customer.

Watch a train load of people
when the new periodicals are brought in. Two out of three turn first to the advertising.
They read the stories and articles
a little afterward, and finally turn to the advertising again. If you could enter the homes when the local newspaper is distributed, you would find a similar searching scrutiny of the store

news.

The reason is obvious. The general news relates to things not directly connected with the personal interest of the reader.
The advertising talks about one's every day interests, like clothing and house furnishings and personal belongings.

In appeals to the ever present desire to live comfortably and attractively, and to reduce the cost of living. How can people help reading them.

TOBACCO TIDINGS.

The following article from the Morganfield Post is so cheering
I reproduce headlines and all:
FINE PROGRESS IS BEING MADE.

Now Believed That There Will
Be More Tobacco Pooled in This County Than Ever Here-
before—Union County Farmers Propose to Keep From Under Heel of Tobacco Trust.

"While it is pretty early in the season to venture a prediction, yet from the reports that are now prevalent the tobacco pool in Union county will be greater than known in any previous year. The pooling papers have not yet been out a great while, but it is understood there is less hesitation on the part of the farmer in signing up than in previous years.

"This shows that the farmers of this county do not expect to again place themselves beneath the mighty heel of the tobacco trust. The association is, of course, not perfect, and can not be expected to be. Some members find fault with it, but when they think of what will happen to the tobacco growers if the association should die—when they recall how merciless the tobacco trust was a few years ago when it bought up fine crops of tobacco at an average of 3 cents a pound, and how the farmer was powerless to help himself, he again becomes proud of the great organization of farmers despite the fact that there are some things about it he does not like. No big organization could be formed and conducted in a way that would be satisfactory to every one.

"Take this from us. The tobacco trust is a corporation conducted to make every dollar possible for its stockholders, many of whom live in foreign countries.

This concern is going to buy tobacco just as low as it can be bought. This tobacco trust is in control of the market. If the farmer is not in position to say what his tobacco is worth, the trust will name the price, and do you think that price would be a good one? If you believe the tobacco trust will get in sympathy with the farmer and pay him a big price for his tobacco when it does not have to do it, you'd better get it out of your head right now and get your tobacco into the pool. If you do not like the association, pool as a business proposition. It is a financial proposition. It means dollars to you. It means an education and comforts for your children instead of million-dollar residences and luxurious living for the members of the tobacco trust. With the association you name the price. Without the association the tobacco trust will name it.
Which shall it be?"—Henderson
(Henderson)

By James N. Banks.

The Hustler reports an enthusiastic meeting at Madisonville last Saturday, as follows:
The farmers who are heart and soul in the upholding of the Stemming District Association and who believe in the ultimate victory against the trusts, were encouraged by the large crowd of Hopkins county farmers that gathered at the court house Saturday afternoon to discuss and hear discussed the situation as it now stands and as it affects the farmer. There is little doubt now but that the farmers of this county will again be one of the counties to pool this year's tobacco crop.

"W. W. Wilson presided at the meeting and the speakers were given close attention.

"General Manager William Elliot, of Henderson, was present and made a statement of the operations of the Association and showed that the expense of handling the immense crop by the association was less than $2.00 on the $100., not $2.00 on the hundred pounds of tobacco, as many seemed to think.

E. S. Davenport, of Muhlen-berg county, made an excellent talk in which he reviewed the the conditions existing prior to the association and since. He showed that the price of tobacco

had been raised double in price
by the Association.

"He showed that tobacco had dropped one-half since the Burley pool failed for last year.

"He said it was the policy of the association men to stand true to their colors, but they are tired of bearing the burden in order to give the outsider a top price and if the outsider did not wish to come in, the pool would be dissolved here and then, he said,
the outsider would see the folly of remaining out, just as the outsider did in the Burley district.

"Louis Hancock made a short talk explaining several details of the work."

Henderson Journal.

Ministers And Members Meeting.

The annual meeting of Baptist, of the Ohio River Association, met with Caldwell Spring church. The body organized by electing Bro. P. A. Clark, of Pinkneyville, moderator; R. A.
LaRue, Clerk. The program of the meeting was taken up after enrollment of members. The discussions were edifying and brotherly. Bro. LaRue contended earnestly for woman's place
in church work as subjective, unofficial, womanly. Bro. Can-nan sent an able, helpful paper
on "The Ideal Sabbath School." Bro. Pierce showed clearly from the scriptures that pastors should not have charge of more than one church. So we called ourselves "supplies." The sermons by Bros. Gibbs and Kinsolving were characteristic of the men and greatly enjoyed by the large congregation. Bro. Gregston discussed the practicability of country churches having every Sunday preaching. Practical because scriptural. Bro. McNeeley opened discussion on "Is the annual protracted meeting best for our churches?" Most of the speakers pointed out objections to them. Bro. Wells opened discussion on "Is the mourners'
bench scriptural?"

Lightning striking a tree near
the church, and killing a mule, brought the meeting to an exciting close, and rain prevented
the usual meeting on Sunday,—
a "striking" close.

The entertainment of the Caldwell Springs people was delightful and abundant.

Morrow Declines To Run For Nomination For Governor.

Lexington, Ky., April 27.—Edwin P. Morrow, United States Attorney for the Eastern Kentucky district, in a signed card conclusively settles the question whether he would be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor. Mr. Morrow, as had been expected, declines to make the race, and thus leaves his uncle, Senator W. O. Bradley, free to give his influence to any other candidate he may choose.
Mr. Morrow is attending the session of the United States court at Richmond and sent above announcement by messenger to this city.

NOTICE.

The stockholders of the Far-

The Annual meeting of the Kentucky State Dental Association, to be held in Owensboro, May 23-24-25. Promises to be of more than usual interest to the dentists of this and neighboring States on account of the numerous new methods and appliances
which will be exhibited there.

Dentistry, unlike many professions, cannot be learned altogether from books and magazines,
and consequently, it is almost obligatory for the progressive dentist to attend these meetings.
Several dentists from Ohio, Indiana and Illinois will give clinics;
in fact everything indicates that this will be the largest and best meeting ever held in Kentucky.

All ethical members of the profession are invited to attend this meeting.

Yours Truly,
Harry S. Lee,
Chairman Press Committee.

ONE WEAK SPOT

Most harlon People Have A Weak Part And Too "en It's The Back.

Everyone has a weak spot. Too often it's a bad back. Twinges follow every sudden twist. Dull aching keeps up, day and night. Tells you the kidneys need help. For backache is really kidney-ache. A kidney cure is what you need. Doan's Kidney Pills help sick kidneys.

Are for backache and urinary ills. Marlon people recommend the remedy.

A. H. Fritts, Deepot St., Marlon, Ky., says: "I know Doan's Kidney Pills to be an effective and reliable kidney remedy. For some time I had lameness in my back and pains caught me when I arose from a stooped position. The kidney secretions were also irregular in passage and I felt miserable in every way. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Haynes & Taylor's drug store, were prompt in relieving me of all those annoyances. I have no hesitation in giving this remedy my highest endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The Largest Edition.

"May I print a kiss my pretty miss?"

And she nodded in fond submission.

And we went to press, and I rather guess

That we printed a large edition."

Do Ghosts Haunt Swamps?

No, Never. Its foolish to fear a fancied evil, when there are real and deadly perils to guard against in swamps and marshes, bayous and lowlands. These are the malarial germs that cause ague, chills and fever, weakness, aches in the bones and muscles and may induce deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters destroys and casts out these vicious germs from the blood. "Three bottles drove all the malaria from my system," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "and I've had fine health ever since." Use this safe, sure remedy only 50 cents at Haynes & Taylor's and Jas. H. Orme's drug store, Marlon, Ky.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Ayer & Co.

Lorimer. A man might be accused by ambition, but he who writes for another's benefit, usually gains some return. And yet the most dangerous force that threatens the American people is the bribery of that very sort. Of course, I do not believe that this bribery occurred without Lorimer's knowledge or consent. I believe that he was a party to it. I believe that he was a party to it. I believe that he was a party to it.

Lorimer Not Sworn as a Witness.

But notwithstanding the fact that Lorimer was sworn as a witness, during the time this bribery occurred, whether he was or was not, is a constant communication with the men who were accused of having committed the bribery, he was not sworn as a witness. The bribery was committed while he was in the Senate, and he was not sworn as a witness until after he had left the Senate. The bribery was committed while he was in the Senate, and he was not sworn as a witness until after he had left the Senate.

Was Lorimer Afraid?

Why did not Lorimer take the stand? Was it because when he sworn he would be subject to prosecution for perjury or false swearing, if he swore falsely? Was it because he was afraid of the consequences of his own actions? Was it because he was afraid of the consequences of his own actions?

Democrats of the Senate Repudiate Lorimer's Report.

Senator Lorimer asks the people of Kentucky to endorse his action here, as a member of the Senate. A strange request, this, when the Senator himself is repudiated by his colleagues in the Senate. The Democrats of the Senate repudiate Lorimer's report.

Official Records.

The people are interested in the official record of their public servants, and such a record is being made by the Senate. The official records show the actions of the Senators, and the people can see for themselves what their public servants are doing.

Paynter's Vote on Iron Ore.

He voted on May 12, 1900, for a tax of ten per cent on iron ore. This was a vote in favor of the protection of the iron industry. The vote was taken on a bill to tax iron ore at ten per cent.

His Pair With Guggenheim.

Senator Paynter, according to the Congressional Record, had a general pair with Senator Guggenheim. This was a vote in favor of the protection of the iron industry. The vote was taken on a bill to tax iron ore at ten per cent.

His Vote on Lead Ore.

On May 17, 1900, an amendment was offered by Aldrich by which the duty upon lead and lead bearing ore of all kinds was placed at 15 cents per hundred pounds. Senator Paynter voted in favor of the amendment.

His Vote Upon Scrap and Pig Iron.

On June 25, 1900, an amendment was offered striking out the tariff duty of $2.50 a ton on wrought and cast scrap iron and scrap steel. Senator Paynter voted in favor of the amendment.

against the amendment. The amendment, of course, would have affected the profits that have made Mr. Guggenheim a millionaire, and he is not to be blamed for that. He is not to be blamed for that. He is not to be blamed for that.

Paynter's Vote on Cash Registers.

On June 25, 1900, an amendment was offered striking out the duty from 30 per cent to 15 per cent upon cash registers. Senator Paynter voted in favor of the amendment. The vote was taken on a bill to reduce the duty on cash registers.

Free Lumber.

On June 25, 1900, when the question came up on free lumber, Senator Paynter was absent and not voting. Guggenheim was present and voting in favor of free lumber. The vote was taken on a bill to provide for free lumber.

Paynter's Vote on Wire Nails, Barbed Wire, Etc.

On June 25, 1900, an amendment was offered reducing the tariff upon iron wire, barbed wire, and wire nails made of iron or steel. Senator Paynter voted in favor of the amendment.

Paynter's Vote on School Books.

The blind senator, Gore, of Oklahoma, offered an amendment placing school books to be used in the public schools of any state, territory or municipality of the United States, free of duty.

Paynter's Vote on Salt.

Senator Bacon offered an amendment placing salt on the free list and argued with eloquence and power that it should be free. The amendment was adopted.

Paynter's Vote on Cotton Ties.

Senator Culberson, of Texas, offered an amendment on June 28, 1900, placing hoop and band iron for making cotton or other commodities upon the free list.

Paynter on the Income Tax Question.

Whether the question came up of the income tax amendment, on July 5, 1900, an amendment was offered that this income tax question should be submitted to the people. The amendment was adopted.

Paynter's Voting Percentage.

I find that out of a total number of votes upon the tariff bill, Senator Paynter voted 75 times and was absent 47 times. His record of not voting was 35.5 per cent.

Senator Blackburn Defeated.

How strange the argument comes from Senator Blackburn that because he is upon the Judiciary Committee he ought to be in the Senate. When Senator Blackburn was leader of the minority in the Senate, the highest position to which a Democrat could hope to attain, upon a Committee of the Senate.

My Views of a Protective Tariff.

Since I have been a member of Congress I have never missed an opportunity to vote to reduce the tariff, to lessen the tax upon the people who consume those things that are necessary to their existence. Upon every vote when the Payne tariff bill was under consideration I voted to lower the tariff.

office already held to that of the one he took. So let us hear no more about endorsement.

My Record.

My record as a member of Congress is familiar to the people of Kentucky. I am proud of it, proud of it because it is a record of service to the people. I am proud of it because it is a record of service to the people.

The Amendment Senator Paynter Offered.

Senator Paynter tells us in his card of announcement that he introduced in the Senate an amendment which he proposed, in which he sought to have the government to furnish official information as to the amount of agricultural products in the hands of the manufacturers.

Fair Treatment to Corporations.

I recognize that in our government or in our country, the corporations are the development of our country and service of our people, that they should be treated fairly, that upon their investment they should receive a fair return.

The Judiciary Committee.

The Senator tells us that he is upon the Judiciary Committee of the Senate and that he believes it is a committee of the Senate.

Would Represent All the People.

As the Senator from Kentucky I would represent the whole people. I would always attempt to reflect their will, I would be conscious of the fact that I was casting their vote, not mine.

Have Fought Democratic Battles For Twenty Years.

Fellow citizens, my record as an alert, fighting Democrat is known to all. I have been fighting for twenty years for the principles of democracy.

Conclusion.

Owing to the fact that a session of Congress, which I believe will be held, it will be impossible for me to be present at all of the sessions of the Senate. I am, however, very deeply interested in the work of the Senate.

protection, which is but another way of taking money out of the pockets of all the people through the forms of law to make the pockets of other people bulge and their fortunes grow into millions. The more I see of this indefensible robbery under the forms of law called protective tariff, the more willing I am to concede the exceeding wisdom of the under Hamilton, who more than a hundred years ago declared that you could take the coat off of a man's back if you did it indirectly and he would not complain.

My Attitude on the Income Tax Question.

I have always believed in an income tax, because it is a just way to distribute the burdens of the government. Those who are most prospered by a government ought to be willing to pay the most to maintain it.

How I Stand on the Direct Election of United States Senators.

I am in favor of the election of senators by the direct vote of the people, for in the language of the Democratic national platform its gateway for all other reforms and without which all other reforms are impossible.

Railroad Rate Regulation.

I believe in the regulation of the railroads, for they are the great interstate carriers of commerce and people. They are public servants and should be treated fairly, but they should also treat the shippers and travelers justly.

Pure Food Legislation.

I supported the pure food legislation and believe it was one of the best laws Congress has ever passed, because it denied the right of the trusts and monopolies to make their fortunes in the sense of the health of the people of the United States.

My Efforts in Behalf of the Tobacco Farmer.

I have battled for the farmers for eight long years in Congress. I have sought to free them from the clutches of the trusts, and in order to do this I advocated taking the tax off of their tobacco.

Publication of Campaign Contributions.

I have advocated as a representative of my district the publication of campaign contributions and expenses before the election so that the ballot holder might know, when he went to the polls, what forces were back of the candidates for whom he was expected to vote.

Corporal Punishment for Violators of the Law.

I stood upon the floor of Congress and advocated writing into the railroad bill a penalitary penalty for those who violate the law. It was voted down in the House, but was finally written into the law in the Senate.

The Platform a Lien Upon Honor.

I stand squarely upon the National Democratic platform adopted by our party in 1900. I consider our promises made to the people in this platform as a lien upon their honor.

In the Beginning I Chose the People's Side.

Fellow citizens, I have no doubt that in this race every corporate and vested interest will try to encompass my defeat. I have been told by many that hundreds of thousands of dollars will be poured into Kentucky to defeat me. Why is this? It is because I have been upon your side in this fight.

Have Fought Democratic Battles For Twenty Years.

Fellow citizens, my record as an alert, fighting Democrat is known to all. I have been fighting for twenty years for the principles of democracy.

Conclusion.

Owing to the fact that a session of Congress, which I believe will be held, it will be impossible for me to be present at all of the sessions of the Senate. I am, however, very deeply interested in the work of the Senate.

GLEN DALE

R. H. Thomas and family have moved to the river to put in a crop. We regret to lose such good people, even for a short time.

Miss Alice Griffith was called to Tolu Tuesday of last week to attend Mr. Harris.

Misses Myrtle and Lonnie Thomas visited their brother, Veyor, of Caney Fork, last week.

E. B. Moore, of Marion, spent the fourth Sunday with his brother, R. D. Moore.

Miss Bertha Ramsey, who is attending school in Marion, visited her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Charles Ramsey, Saturday night and Sunday.

W. E. Crumie left the first of the week for Joplin, Mo., on a business trip in the interest of the Eclipse Mining Company.

For first-class groceries, call Frank Jacobs, who will appreciate your patronage and treat you right.

Messrs. Klare and Leonhart, of Louisville, were here last week in the interest of the Commodore mines.

Lee Enoch was in Caye-in-Rock, Ill., Saturday.

A. J. Thompson, wife and daughter, Miss Willie, went to Marion Saturday shopping.

Tom Young, of near Mexico, passed through this section last week taking orders for enlarging pictures.

Miss Mary Hurley, one of our most popular young ladies, has been elected secretary of Glendale Sunday School.

Owing to the very rainy day Sunday, there was no Sunday School at this place, but hope to have a good attendance and well prepared lesson next Sunday.

Every Bottle is Guaranteed

Every bottle of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey is guaranteed to give satisfaction in all throat and bronchial troubles.

SILAM

Miss Ruth Moore, of Marion, was the guest of Miss Celia Donakey Saturday and Sunday.

Sunday School at this place every Sunday at 9:30 o'clock a. m., with good attendance.

R. E. Moore went to Marion Saturday on business.

C. E. Donakey is going to move to the river to make a crop.

Mrs. Cooper, who has been on the sick list for several months, is improving slowly.

Quarterly meeting was well attended at this place Saturday, April 22nd, and Presiding Elder, Rev. J. B. Adams, preached two splendid sermons.

Plenty of rain at present.

Rob Hughes has quit school and has gone to mining.

Norval Franks, who is attending school at Carrsville, was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Martha Franks, Saturday and Sunday.

For Sixteen Years.

Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey. Has been used by millions of people with perfect satisfaction. For Coughs, Colds, Asthma in fact all throat and bronchial troubles.

The ingredients are on the carton. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey contains no habit producing drugs, and always gives satisfaction. Look for the bell on the bottle.

NEW SALEM.

Our sick are improving. About one fourth of the corn crop planted.

The present wet spell will put the farmers greatly behind with their planting.

Mrs. Robert Threlkeld spent part of last week the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Davenport, at Salem.

Born to the wife of Allen Kirk, a fine daughter.

Mrs. Bill Barnes, of Carrsville, spent part of last week the guest of relatives near New Salem.

Mrs. Mary C. Fuller, of Carrsville, is the guest of her children near New Salem.

Luther Pace, of Piney, was in this section last week among his old neighbors.

Since writing the above letter, this section has been visited by a regular cloud burst which did hundreds of dollars damage to fencing and ground that was plowed and planted in this valley.

One fourth of the crop planted is washed up and will have to be planted the second time.

Our people spent part of last Sunday repairing their fences so as to protect their crops until Monday.

Any one wishing to purchase a fine male hog (thin rine) fourteen months old, call on T. A. Harpending, near New Salem church.

Hays Medicine Co.: I was a sufferer with ECZEMA for twenty years. Several months ago I tried Hays Specific and after about three weeks use, my legs shedded off as white and free from sores as they were before I had the eczema. I have had no pain or annoyance since; in fact am well.

R. D. Oliver, Bradford, Tenn. A6 line.

MEXICO

Mrs. Cal Myers is on the sick list. Mrs. Martha Hopson is very sick with lagrippe.

Harvey Whitcom, the man who was seriously cut with a circle saw, is able to be up and walking around.

Capt. Haase is sinking a new shaft at the gravel pit for water.

Wm. Bibby is in Birmingham at present.

The Hootier Mining Co., is operating three shafts. At present they are taking out about twenty tons daily.

LIQUID CURES ECZEMA WHERE SALVE FAILS

In regard to skin diseases medical authorities are now agreed on this:

Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid.

WASH THE GERMS OUT. A simple wash: A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D. D. Prescription, penetrates to the disease germs and destroys it, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A 25-cent trial bottle will start the cure, and give you instant relief.

Sold by J. H. Orme, Marion, Ky.

O'POSSUM RIDGE

The farmers are busy preparing for their crops.

Miss Toy Wolford was the guest of friends and relatives in the Colon neighborhood last week.

James Daughtry went to Evansville last week with a nice bunch of hogs.

Will Al. is improving his farm by building a new wire fence.

Mr. and Mrs. James Daughtry were pleasant callers at the home of Mrs. Alvis Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Wofford went to Weston Monday shopping.

It's been reported that Miss Alma Heath has the whooping cough. Cheer up Jim, it's all a mistake.

Will Springs has recently moved his sawmill from Glen Dale to the Dunn Spring ford, where he will be employed until wheat-threshing time if not longer.

Mrs. D. J. Hughes was the guest of Mrs. T. N. Wofford Thursday.

Miss Alma Heath is the guests of her sister, Mrs. Marvin Asher, of Weston.

We have been having some fine ball games at Fords Ferry. Play on boys we are proud of you.

Miss Mabelle Wilson, of Marion, is the guest of her friend, Miss Bertha Rankin, at this writing.

Jack Alvis has stopped making his monthly trips to O'possum Ridge or some where about. What's the matter, Jack?

Look out for peddler and agents, this country is supplied with them.

Marion Truitt made a flying trip to Rosebud Sunday.

Misses Bettie and Helbie Martin, who have been employed at Henderson for some time, are now visiting parents and friends near Hebron.

Will close with many good wishes to the dear editor.

The big rain last week broke the levy on Jack Baker's fine fish lake.

Hays Medicine Co.: We are delighted to add our testimony to the virtues of Hays Specific. Our work produces CONSTIPATION, RHEUMATISM and STOMACH TROUBLE. For years we have looked for a remedy, but in Hays Specific we have found a cure. So far it has not failed on a single man and twenty-eight have taken it. We have recommended it to many of our friends and know of no failures. We stand ready to make affidavit to this testimonial for the benefit of any who doubt it. -J. J. Wood, Chief of Fire Department, Paducah, Ky. M4-11-18-25.

CALDWELL SPRINGS.

(Delayed from last week.)

Plenty of back-water from the Cumberland river.

Several of the farmers have broken their ground, but no corn planted yet.

The young people had quite an interesting time at Jim Brown's Sunday afternoon.

The back-water has suspended travel across Free Betty ford. Oh! how badly we need a bridge.

Farmers if you have anything to sell, why not advertise it in your county paper? The cost will not be very much and then you may meet with a chance to sell at fair price.

Herbert Pilant, Roy Turpin and Lev Brown have made and launched a new boat on the Cumberland river waters Saturday. Its name is Brown-Turpin.

Fred Glenn, our road overseer, sure put his road in good shape Thursday. Many thanks to you Mr. Glenn. May others do likewise.

If we want our burdens to grow lighter, we must help some poor weary brother carry his.

We often mistake each other here, but we shall know our brothers better when the mists have rolled away.

BARRICADED AT HOME

Insane Man Near Golconda, Ill.

Golconda, Ill., April 27.—Sheriff E. McCormick and a posse of five deputies have been besieging the home of Greene Bush, a farmer residing five miles northwest of Golconda for five days with a subpoena for his appearance before the county sanitary board. Brush, armed with a repeating shot gun, has barricaded his home and announced he will kill every man who approaches within 100 ft of it. With Brush in his impregnable citadel is his widowed mother, seventy years old, whom he dominates until she fears to show and who leaves the house only to visit the well, a few feet from the door, for water. The Sheriff has established a patrol about the Brush premises.

"I Am Glad"

writes Mrs. Ethel Newlin, of Liberty Center, Ind., "that I began to take Cardui, for it has cured me, and I will never forget it. I cannot praise Cardui too highly for what it did for me. Before I began to take it, I was very bad color, suffered great pain and weighed only 105 pounds. Now I have a good color, do not suffer and weigh 125 lbs."

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Beware of strong, noxious, mineral drugs, that sink into your system, like lead to the bottom of a basin of water.

Cardui is purely vegetable and contains no poisonous minerals, or dangerous drugs.

It is perfectly safe and harmless, for use by old and young, and may be taken, as a tonic, for months, without any possible harmful effect. Try it.

THE TAYLOR-CRAMER DEBATE

Will be held at the camp meeting shed at the Tabb mines from the 13th to the 16th of June. It was published to take place at Emmaus Baptist Church on Clay Lick Creek but owing to a misunderstanding is changed.

GEO. H. CRAMER.

We guarantee Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve to cure common sore eyes in 24 to 36 hours. This seems strange, but it is backed by our guarantee. You run no risk and it only costs 25c.

Trenton Progress Says

"Trenton has a pretty girl who can give old house keepers and chickens fanciers several paces and then beat them with her poultry yard. This energetic girl is Miss Patter McElwain, near the city, who now has 95 spring chickens and 250 eggs setting."

When a medicine must be given to young children it should be pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is made from molasses, and the root used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it pleasant to take. It has no superior for colds, croup and whooping cough. For sale by all dealers.
